Report

On 26-03-2022, the Department of English has conducted Prize distribution ceremony. Earlier, competitions were held to all the students in six events and the winners were short listed. To give prizes to the winners, a grand celebration is arranged in the virtual class room with the family members of late Smt. T.V.Z. Kanaka Durga, the alumna of D.K.W College, Nellore, during 1969-1973 B.A. English Literature (4 yrs Honours degree), staff and students of our college. Durga madam died of cancer in 2013. To commemorate her death, the competitions were held for five days.

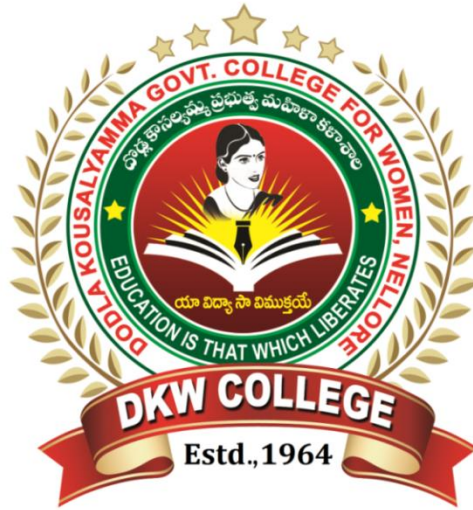

Veteran advocate in Nellore town, Sri Sreenivasa Rao is the brother and Smt Anuradha is the younger sister of late Smt. Kanaka Durga. Sreenivasa Rao, Smt. Anuradha and her husband have been invited to the celebration. The principal Dr. D. Giri, presided over the function. Dr. Ch. Krishna Murthy, HoD of English, invited the guests on to the dais. Later, he explained the importance of the function, briefing on the conduct of competitions to the students, and the distribution of prizes to the winners.

At first, the principal spoke at length. He praised the great qualities of late Smt. T.V.Z. Kanaka Durga, and exhorted the students to be like her, taking her as example. Durga's brother spoke about her sister's talent in subjects and her winning spirit, hard working nature etc. He recalled various childhood memories that he had with his sister Durga. Later, Smt. Anuradha spoke about her sister's love and affection towards her family members, her talents and so on. She said that her sister was a self-made woman. Later, P.M.V Prasad, lecturer in mathematics recalled his relationship with the reputed family of Smt. Kanaka Durga. Durga madam has two daughters and one son, all of them are well settled in foreign countries.

The guests were felicitated grandly with shawls and gifts, and then started the prize distribution ceremony. All the winners in various competitive events were appreciated and were given away prizes by the guests and the principal. With the vote of thanks by Dr. S. Vindhya vali, lecturer in English, the celebration came to an end.

(Maximum Marks=30)

I. Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow. 5x1=5

I resigned, after my first voyage, to spend the rest of my days at Baghdad, but it was not longer. I grew weary of an indolent life, and I put to sea a second time with merchants of known probity. We embarked on board of a good ship, and after recommending ourselves to God, set sail. One day we landed on an island covered with several sorts of fruit trees, but we could see neither man nor animal. We walked in the meadows, along the streams that watered them. While some diverted themselves, with gathering flowers, and others fruits. I took my wine and provisions, and sat down near a stream between two high trees, which afforded a delightful shade. I made a good meal, and afterwards fell asleep. I cannot tell how long I slept, but when I awoke, the ship was no longer in view.

In this sad condition, I was ready to die with grief, I cried out in agony, beat my head and breast, and threw myself upon the ground where I lay sometime overwhelmed by a rushing current of thoughts, each more distressing than the last.

Answer the following Questions: 5x1=5

1. Why did he set sail a second time?
2. Where did they land one day?
3. When did he sleep?
4. Why was he greatly distressed?
5. What is the meaning of the word 'agony'?

II. Fill in the blanks with appropriate verb forms by using the hints given in brackets.

5x1=5

1. Sarala -----(get) up from bed at 5 a.m daily.
2. We -----(watch) the match. Don't disturb us.
3. Sheela -----just -----(complete) the work.
4. I -----(be) here yesterday.
5. His uncle came when they -----(dance).

III. Correct the following sentences and rewrite.

5x1=5

1. This scissor is not sharp.
2. Neither of the two boys are intelligent.
3. One of the boys are clever.
4. Bread and butter have become costly now-a-days.
5. Mahesh with his friends are sitting in the office room.

IV. Write a letter to your father about your hostel, college, friends, and request him to send you Rs.500/- to buy books.

(Or) Write a story that you know in 200 words 1x5=5

VALEDICTORY FUNCTION

25-07-2022

REPORT

On 25-07-2022, the Department of English celebrated Valedictory on the eve of completion of the Certificate Course in English entitled “Foundation Course in English Writing Skills” as approved in Board of Studies. This course that started on 20-06-2022 came to an end on 25-07-2022 completing 60 teaching hours. A total of 28 students from 1st year B.Com, B.Sc and B.A groups joined the course and successfully completed it strictly adhering to the course instructions. Towards the end of the course one internal exam and one external exam were conducted, papers were evaluated, marks were announced, merit students were identified, and based on that prizes were announced.

The closing day function started at 4-15p.m in the Virtual Class room attended by all the Course students and faculty of English.. Principal Dr. D. Giri presided over the meeting. Vice-principal Sri A.V. Ramana Rao and IQAC Coordinator Dr. P.M.V. Prasad were invited as Guests of Honour. Dr. Ch. Krishna Murthy, coordinator of this Course after welcoming the guests on to the stage, thanked them all for honouring his request and attending the event. With the prayer by V. Suvarna, the function started. During his talk, the principal appreciated the efforts of the Department of English and gave a call to the students to keep up the spirit and continue to carry it forward. He gave an inspiring speech with beautiful examples. Later the vice-principal gave a good message on time management and also on the need to pursue higher studies. IQAC Coordinator, Dr. P.M.V. Prasad in his memorable speech inspired the students with live examples. He asked them to work hard, respect teachers, parents and elders in the community. The great values that they get here are carried forward. Later, certificates were distributed among the students.

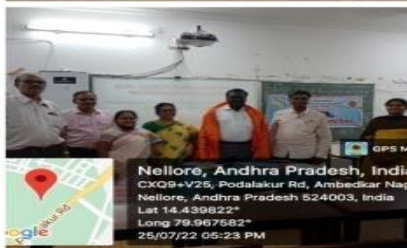

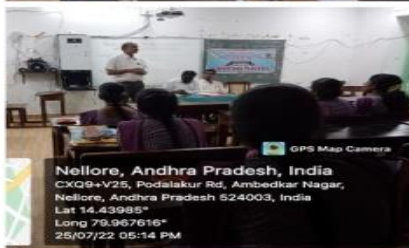

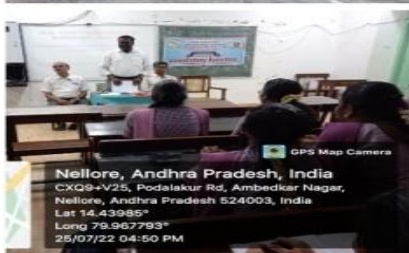

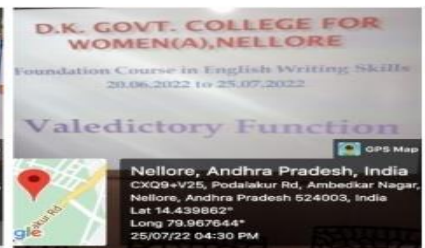

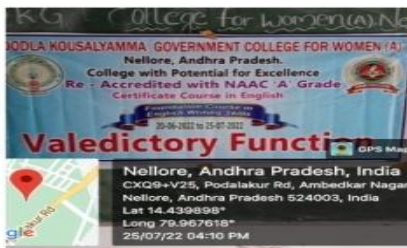

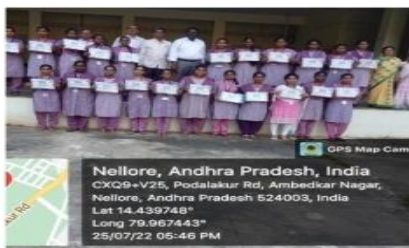

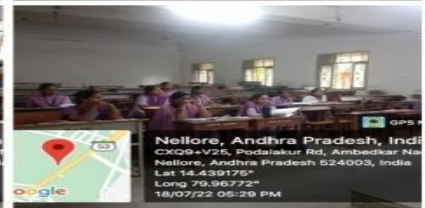

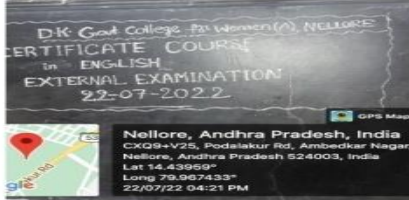

As a token of respect, the Principal was felicitated by the Department. With the vote of thanks by the coordinator, the valedictory function came to an end. Sweets were distributed among the students. After taking a group photo all the participants dispersed. Thus the programme was successfully held by the Department of English.

“Developing English Communication Skills for Personal Effectiveness”

Good morning to all the distinguished dignitaries, esteemed faculty participants, elite groups, and the most prized possession i.e the student community. Dodla Kousalyamma Government College for Women (A), Nellore, heartfully invites you all to this wonderful programme, an Endowment lecture, being organized by the Department of English today. At the outset, I appreciate the efforts of the Department of English for taking initiative to conduct a memorial lecture of this kind for knowledge dissemination and convention building, and to facilitate social interaction.

Indeed I'm proud to say that this endowment lecture was sponsored by Sri Ramakrishna Rao Palepu, now the resident of Oklahoma, the U.S.A., founded in fond memory of his deceased wife, who had earlier worked as lecturer in English in DKW college during 1970's. By depositing two lakh rupees with an understanding that the interest accrued on this deposited amount be spent annually to organize an Endowment lecture on his wife's name, he got this tradition established. His main intention was that a maximum number of students should get benefit out of the lecture. Moreover, the broad area of the lecture should be 21st century skills for students, focusing on areas like critical thinking, creative thinking and so on.

We are grateful to Rama Krishna Rao garu and his family for their generous contribution to the department of English as well as for his other philanthropic activities conducted elsewhere, on her name. This programme was named “Smt. Lalitha Kunichetty Palepu Memorial Endowment Lecture” and it has been going on since last academic year. This is of course, the second lecture going to be delivered since its inception.

As part of this, we have arranged this programme by inviting an eminent professor Kedari Narasimha Rao, working in the well reputed premier institute, the English and Foreign Languages University, Hyderabad. Welcome sir. On behalf of our college, I take this opportunity to gladly welcome you to this wonderful programme. I strongly hope that this seminal activity will reap literary harvest by going a long way and by touching the areas untrodden so far. I advise all the students to make most of this golden opportunity and revise and reform their skills for their career development. Thank you one and all.

PROFILE OF THE SPEAKER--Prof. Kedari Narasimha Rao

Good morning to the Principal, all the distinguished participants and the most beloved student community. With immense pleasure, I take this opportunity to present before you a brief profile of today's speaker, Prof. Kedari Narasimha Rao. At present, sir has been the Registrar in-charge, HoD of Indian and World Literatures, School of Literary Studies, at the English and Foreign Languages University, Hyderabad. Earlier, he had worked as Asst. Professor in Vikrama Simhapuri University, Nellore.

Glad to say that both in the academics and in administration, sir has achieved distinctions. Earlier he had worked in various capacities as Joint Director of IQAC, UGC, Coordinator of MHRD, Coordinator for Media Affairs and Public Relations, Protocol Officer, Public Information Officer, Nodal Officer of APSCHE, Webmaster, E-Content developer, and also the member in various committees including PG Board of Studies. I'm delighted to say that right from the beginning of his studies, he was a rank holder. He received Alumni medal in B.A English literature at A.C College, Guntur, and got second rank in M.A English at Acharya Nagarjuna University. He completed law course also. He was also the recipient of Venus International Award as distinguished faculty in Postcolonial Studies in 2016.

Coming to his academic endeavours, KNR sir has authored two books, edited two more books, translated SWAYAM- MOOCs Course Modules, besides publishing seven research papers in National Journals and 23 papers in various International journals. He has fourteen national and nine international publications in books. Sir has organized six National Seminars/workshops, participated in eleven international, and nineteen National Seminars/Conferences/Symposia and presented papers everywhere.

Coming to his research contributions, So far, four Ph.Ds have been awarded to his scholars under his efficient guidance. He has been the adjudicator for M.Phil thesis, Ph.D thesis, besides being a membership holder in various associations. He attended training programmes, invited talks, Chairing sessions, Panel discussions, and also worked in the capacity of the key note speaker, graced as Resource Person in National Seminars, delivered plenary talks, invited talks at various institutions. And above all, sir has guided many students for high-end examinations like CAT, GRE, IELTS in fortifying students in verbal ability and critical reasoning. With these high sounding qualifications and gifts, sir has self-discipline and resourcefulness as his precious strengths. List is so big, but the time is too short. Hence I stop here. Thank you one and all.

VOTE OF THANKS

Good afternoon everybody. So far, so good. Until now, we have been in a literary shower rained by Prof. K. Narasimha Rao garu. How high we have been lifted up in spirits, I can't properly express just in words, but with deep sense of regard and respects, I record my heartfelt thanks to the present day eminent speaker Prof. Kedari Narasimha Rao. Thank you so much sir for accepting our request immediately and cooperating with us in all the ways possible for the smooth conduct of this memorial lecture. I strongly hope that the purpose of this programme as desired by the sponsorer is duly served.

How do we forget to thank the sponsorer Sri Palepu Rama Krishna Rao garu, without whose contribution and support, this memorial lecture would have been non-existent. I record my heartfelt thanks to you and your family sir.

I also record my thanks to our respected principal, Dr. D. Giri for his immense support and encouragement to all our programmes. Thank you very much sir.

I express my deep felt thanks to all the participants without whose presence the programme would have looked pale and anemic.

Last but most in appreciation, I express my thanks to all the student community for their active listening and participation, judicious interaction and doubts clarification.

I also thank all the technical staff who helped this programme run sweetly and soundly with least inconvenience. Special thanks to the media personnel for their wide coverage of this programme.

Thank you all.

Comprehensive Report

In memory of late Lalitha Kunichetty, the Department of English has conducted the Endowment lecture in English entitled “Developing English Communication Skills for Personal Effectiveness” on 22-01-2022. This is the second lecture organized since its inception. Dr. Kedari Narasimha Rao, Professor of English at the English and Foreign Languages University (EFLU), Hyderabad has been the resource person. The theme of the lecture as wished by the donor is on 21st Century skills. The programme was held online through Google meet (G-suite) and all the faculty members along with students attended the virtual programme and made it a grand success.

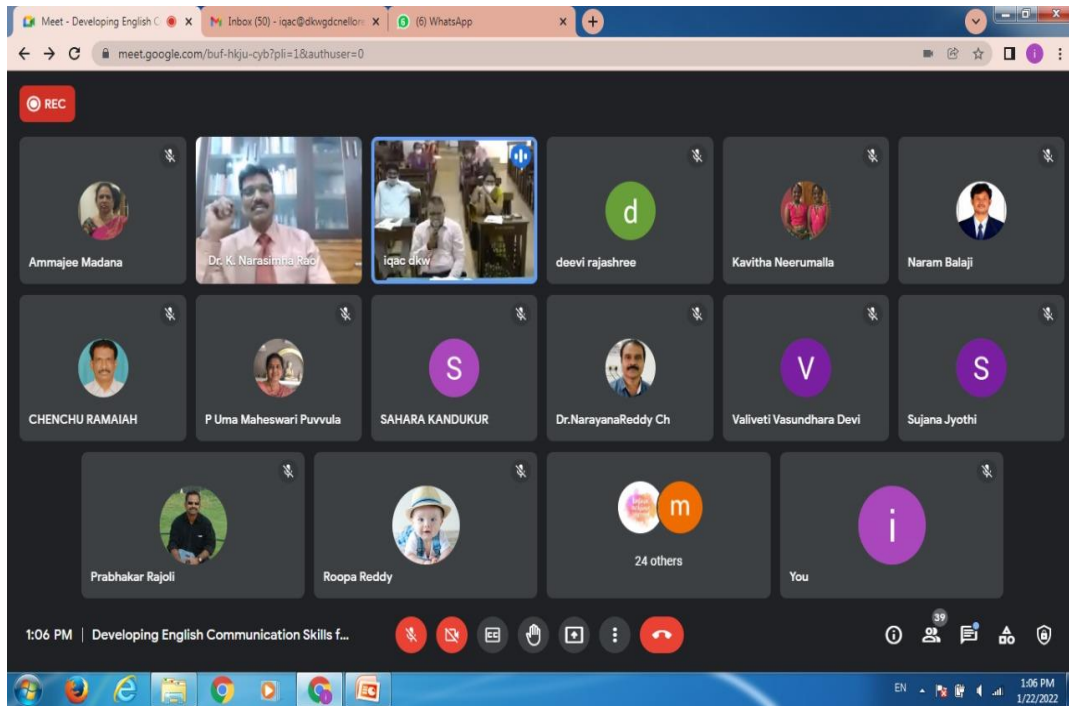

The programme started exactly at 11 a.m. with prayer by Sai Jyoshna, a 3rd year student. The convener of the programme Dr. Ch. Krishnamurthy, HoD of English department invited the respected principal on to the stage and requested him to preside over the meeting. Welcoming all the participants and students with a cheerful smile, he also explained the importance of the Endowment lecture, the intention of the donor sri Rama Krishna Palepu who had established this tradition in memory of his late wife Smt. Lalitha Kunichetty, the former lecturer in English in D.K Government College for Women.

Later, the principal and president of the Endowment lecture Dr. D. Giri warmly welcomed all the participants, resource person and the students to the wonderful programme. After thanking the donor, he spoke at length about the greatness of D.K College. Then he briefed the established tradition of Endowment lecture and finally instructed the students to make most of the opportunity by listening to the lecture and noting down all the points for later revision. Smt. P. Uma Maheswari, lecturer in English read the resume of the resource person. After that the resource person Prof. K. Narasimha Rao took over the session.

The resource person in his speech spoke about the need of learning grammar for correct usage, usage of collocations, knowledge about the root words, differences in spelling, pronunciation, right use of stress and intonation, etymology of words, confusing words etc. He talked about Stephen Krashen's (An American linguist, educational researcher and activist) views on second language acquisition, differences between acquisition and learning, Monitor hypothesis etc. After that he gave some handouts to the students for doing grammar work. Going line by line he explained to the students various grammar items eliciting answers from them from time to time. Towards the end he made them interact with him. The students also actively responded to his questions and did the work given to them.

The programme that began with prayer came to a successful close with vote of thanks given by Dr. Y. Venkateswarlu, lecturer in English.

Endowment Lecture conducted virtually by the Department of English on 22-01-2022.

Report:

A National Webinar on “Blockchain Technology” was organized by IQAC and Department of Computer Science / Applications on 16-06-2022 through Google Meet.

Dr. D. GIRI, Principal, inaugurated the programme at 11:00AM with a prayer song. While inviting the Resource Person Prof. Ganesh Panathula, HOD, Department of MCA, BMSIT&M, Bengaluru, Karnataka, India, he thanked him profusely for his immediate acceptance as a Resource Person to this very latest and highly demanding subject. He also advised the students to make use of the subject by rightly understanding and generating awareness on the subject.

About 160 students and also staff members attended the webinar both online and offline.

After the questions and interaction session was ended by vote of thanks.
