A Brief Report on TALK THE BOOK Programme

“Reading is a sure way of boosting creativity and imagination and it also helps to improve memory, vocabulary and the desire to achieve one’s goals besides lowering stress levels” said by Prof. K. Hemachandra Reddy, Chairperson of the Andhra Pradesh State Council of Higher Education (APSCHE).

APSCHE has initiated many first-of-its kind activities in the country to strengthen the Higher Educational Institutes in the state while ensuring access, equity and quality in Higher Education. One such path-breaking initiative is “TALK THE BOOK”

In this programme prominent academicians and non-academicians would be invited to review books on every Friday from 3.00pm to 4.00pm. Managements of all higher educational institutions would be asked to ensure that their students listen to the book review, broadcast via YouTube. Both Telugu and English would be taken up for review.

As part of this programme the following Lecturers and Students of D. K. Govt. College for Women (A), Nellore are privileged to share their views on selected books.

D.K.Govt college for Women (A) staff and students has been involved in APSCHE (ANDHRA PRADESH STATE COUNCIL OF HIGHER EDUCATION) Collaborative activity “TALK THE BOOK” in online mode to improve students memory, vocabulary and desire to achieve one’s goals. Through TALK THE BOOK activity, reviews of good books are taken up on regular basis in YouTube. The idea is to inspire the younger generation to read the particular book after listening to the review and to inculcate in them a reading habit
